

SEE Retreat Terms & Conditions

Last Updated: June 22, 2026

1. Registration

Participation in SEE is subject to application, review, and acceptance by the SEE team.

Your place is confirmed only after:

- Your application has been accepted.
- Required registration forms have been completed.
- Payment has been received.

SEE reserves the right to decline participation if we believe the retreat is not an appropriate fit for an applicant.

2. Payment

The retreat must be paid in full by the due date provided in the registration e-mail.

Failure to complete payment by the stated due date may result in cancellation of your reservation.

3. Cancellation Policy

Because retreat planning involves significant advance commitments and limited capacity, the following cancellation policy applies:

- Within 24 hours of booking: Full refund.
- More than 60 days before retreat start: 75% refund of payments made.
- 30–60 days before retreat start: 50% refund of payments made.
- Less than 30 days before retreat start: No refund.

If your place can be filled from a waiting list, SEE may, at its sole discretion, offer a partial refund.

4. Transfers

Registrations may not be transferred to another participant without prior written approval from SEE.

5. Travel Responsibility

Participants are responsible for arranging and paying for their own travel, visas, passports, insurance, and transportation unless otherwise stated.

SEE is not responsible for costs incurred due to missed flights, travel delays, border issues, weather events, or other circumstances beyond our control.

We strongly recommend purchasing comprehensive travel insurance.

6. Program Changes

SEE reserves the right to modify schedules, facilitators, activities, accommodations, or retreat content when reasonably necessary.

Any such changes will be made with the intention of maintaining the quality and integrity of the retreat experience.

7. Participant Conduct

Participants agree to behave respectfully toward fellow participants, facilitators, staff, and local communities.

SEE reserves the right to remove any participant whose behavior is disruptive, unsafe, abusive, or detrimental to the experience of others.

No refund will be provided in such cases.

8. Personal Responsibility

SEE is an educational and personal development experience.

Participants remain responsible for their own decisions, actions, health, and wellbeing before, during, and after the retreat.

SEE does not provide medical, psychiatric, legal, or financial advice.

9. Photography & Media

During the retreat, photographs and video recordings may occasionally be taken.

Participants may opt out of appearing in promotional materials by notifying the SEE team in writing before the retreat begins.

10. Force Majeure

SEE shall not be liable for cancellations, delays, modifications, or interruptions caused by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to natural disasters, government actions, travel restrictions, public health emergencies, labor disputes, or acts of God.

11. Agreement

By registering for SEE, participants acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms & Conditions.
