

SEE Participant Agreement & Assumption of Risk

Last Updated: June 22nd, 2026

Purpose of the Retreat

SEE is a personal development retreat designed to support self-awareness, reflection, learning, connection, and personal growth.

The retreat includes group discussions, emotional processing exercises, guided reflection, movement practices, meditation, coaching-style facilitation, nature-based activities, and, where legally permitted and applicable, a facilitated psilocybin experience.

SEE is not psychotherapy, psychiatric treatment, medical care, or crisis intervention.

Voluntary Participation

I acknowledge that my participation in SEE is entirely voluntary.

I understand that I may choose not to participate in any specific activity and may withdraw from an activity at any time.

Assumption of Risk

I understand that personal development retreats may involve emotional, psychological, and physical challenges.

These may include:

- Strong emotions
- Difficult memories
- Personal insights
- Interpersonal discomfort
- Physical fatigue
- Emotional vulnerability
- Changes in perspective, beliefs, or self-perception

If participating in a psilocybin experience, I understand that additional risks may include:

- Altered perception
- Changes in mood or emotions
- Anxiety or fear
- Confusion
- Unexpected psychological experiences

I acknowledge that no specific outcome or benefit can be guaranteed.

I voluntarily assume responsibility for the risks associated with participation.

Personal Responsibility

I understand that I remain responsible for my own wellbeing, choices, actions, and decisions before, during, and after the retreat.

I understand that facilitators may offer guidance, education, and support, but all decisions remain my own responsibility.

Medical Disclaimer

I understand that SEE and its facilitators do not provide medical, psychiatric, psychological, legal, or financial advice.

Participation should not be considered a substitute for professional medical or mental health care.

Release of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, I release and hold harmless SEE, Human Project, its facilitators, staff, contractors, volunteers, venue partners, and representatives from claims, liabilities, losses, damages, or expenses arising from my participation, except in cases of gross negligence or intentional misconduct.

Confidentiality

I agree to respect the privacy of fellow participants.

I will not share personal stories, experiences, or identifying information disclosed by other participants without their explicit permission.
